Animals in the Classroom

Animals may be allowed in the classroom under the following conditions:

1. The building administrator shall approve the animal prior to allowing it in the classroom.
2. The presence of the animal must meet specific educational objectives.
3. The animal is housed in a tank or cage in the classroom for a specific period of time. If they are in a cage or tank, they should remain in the cage throughout the week (5 days per week/24 hours per day for the period of time deemed necessary to meet the educational objectives.)
4. The animal shall not pose a danger to the students in the classroom.
